How and Why you should Prune your Okra

Okra management

First, always cut off leaves near okra pod harvested and prune it to provide space and to reduce competition among plants for light.