

How To Plant Eggplants, Peppers and Chillis

Crop management

As a farmer put stakes around pepper plant to prevent it from strong wind, he should provide warmer conditions for chillis and also plant okra in the same garden. Put rock dust around plants to provide calcium as these crop require acidic soils of pH 5.5-6.5 and add well decomposited chicken manure to the crops to increase on nitrogen levels and keep temperature of soils even.